

HEALTHCARE SUPPLEMENT

Applicant:

1. Home Health Services

Does the applicant provide home health care services?

Yes  No

If yes, Total number of employees

Number of professional employees

Number of non-professional employees

2. Ambulances / Emergency Vehicles

Do employees operate or occupy ambulances or other emergency vehicles?

Yes  No

If yes, Number of emergency vehicles owned

Average number of employees per vehicle

3. Emergency Aircraft

Do employees regularly travel in any emergency aircraft?

Yes  No

If yes, What is the frequency of travel?

Average number of employees per aircraft

4. Safe Patient / Resident Handling

Does the applicant have a Safe Patient / Resident Handling Program?

Yes  No

If yes, is there management commitment?

Yes  No

If yes, does the program include any of the following? (check all that apply)

- A multi-disciplinary Safe Patient / Resident Handling Team
- Written procedures for assessing, handling and moving patients/residents
- Unit peer leaders / lift champions / ergo coaches
- Patient / resident lift / transfer / movement equipment
- Training to maximize competency in procedures and use of equipment
- A formalized process to measure the success of the program and continuous improvement
- Does the program utilize any of the following equipment? (check all that apply)
  - Air assisted lateral transfer systems
  - Ceiling mounted patient lifts
  - Floor based powered full body slings
  - Friction reducing devices
  - Gait / transfer belts
  - Mechanical lateral transfer aids
  - Non-powered standing lifts
  - Powered standing lifts
  - Sliding boards

5. Slips, Trips, and Falls

Does the applicant have a Slips, Trips and Falls Program?

Yes  No

If yes, is there management commitment?

Yes  No

If yes, does the program include any of the following? (check all that apply)

- A process to identify slip, trip and fall hazards as well as the root cause of these hazards
- A process to control and/or prevent these hazards

- A process to audit floor surfaces to ensure proper friction is present
- Supervisory / manager accountability
- Training to maximize competency in the elements of the program
- Prohibition of certain footwear
- Shoe programs for employees to incent wearing of proper footwear

6. Combative Patients / Residents

Does the applicant have a Combative Patients / Residents Program?

Yes  No

If yes, is there management commitment?

Yes  No

If yes, does the program include any of the following? (check all that apply)

- A zero tolerance workplace violence policy
- Hazard identification and prevention
- Mandatory reporting
- Training to maximize competency in the elements of the program

If yes, does the training include any of the following? (check all that apply)

- A process to recognize predictors of combative behaviors
- Prevention techniques including communication skills
- Techniques to de-escalate behaviors
- Behavior management including seclusion and restraint methods
- Reporting Process

7. Bloodborne Pathogens

Does the applicant have a Bloodborne Pathogens Exposure Control Plan?

Yes  No

If yes, does the program include any of the following? (check all that apply)

- A process for exposure risk determination
- Engineering and work practice controls to eliminate or minimize exposures
- Personal protection equipment including gloves, masks, eyewear, gowns, etc.
- Housekeeping procedures for cleaning and removing spills
- Medical surveillance
- Hepatitis B vaccination
- Employee hazard communication process
- Post-exposure evaluation and follow-up, including prophylaxis when appropriate
- Reporting and recordkeeping process
- Training to maximize competency in the elements of the program

8. Needlesticks / Sharps

Does the applicant have a Needlesticks / Sharps Program?

Yes  No

If yes, does the program include any of the following? (check all that apply)

- A written exposure control program designed to eliminate or minimize exposures
- A process to evaluate and recommend the use of safer needles/sharps
- Personal protection equipment including gloves, masks, eyewear, gowns, etc.
- Prohibition of bending or recapping contaminated needles/sharps
- Prohibition of shearing or breaking contaminated needles/sharps
- Hepatitis B vaccination
- Training to maximize competency in the elements of the program
- Post-exposure evaluation and follow-up, including prophylaxis when appropriate
- Reporting and recordkeeping process